First Thanksgiving

Teach Beside Me

Long ago, the pilgrims sailed across the ocean on a ship called the Mayflower.

When the pilgrims got to America, they met the native people.

The natives helped the pilgrims survive in this new land.

They taught the pilgrims many things about planting, hunting and fishing.

The pilgrims and the natives became friends and wanted to celebrate the harvest together.

Together they made a large feast of Thanksgiving with many delicious foods.

And this is how our Thanksgiving holiday began!
